Have a thankful heart

And be thankful for what you get.

Never stop being thankful.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING

By Emma Lindquist

The Pilgrims sailed across the blue.

A baby was born...guess who?

Oceanus was his name.

They did not have any games.

The Mayflower sailed for many weeks.

The boat did not have any leaks.

There was a storm. It was very rough.

Staying on was very tough!

They finally landed and guess what they did.

They washed all the clothes.

After awhile I guess it flows!

After awhile the Pilgrims met

The Indians...I don't think that they were wet.

They had a feast with lots of food.

I'll bet they were in a very good mood!
